This international congress is organized in the framework of the project «ERN4mob – European Rural Network Work for Job Mobility», financed by the European Union’s Citizens Programme (2014-2020), whose main objective is to connect people from different European Union countries and beyond the Union who live together in the same local communities, to rise awareness of their common values and needs but also to promote the empowerment of their social and multicultural differences, through the creation of a network of European rural municipalities for job mobility that will work in the benefit of citizens’ social and labour integration in order to achieve a stable, sustainable and inclusive growth of rural Europe 2020.
